

3. I extended the current Woodlands polygon a little and added a Wetlands polygon to the south. The Woodlands, Water, and Wetlands polygons occupy approximately 35.38 acres. The other trees on the tract are too sparse to extend the Woodlands out to them. The shadows in the imagery are longer and give the impression there are more trees than just along treelines.